Get prepped

- Preheat oven to 180°C/160°C fan-forced.
- Measure 200g of butter and set aside at room temperature to soften.
- Weigh 30g of cocoa powder. Weigh 300g of basic sponge mix. Finely chop slivered almonds.

TIP: Weigh out your ingredients before you start as we've sent you a little extra cocoa powder and basic sponge mix!

Cream the butter & sugar

- In a large bowl, beat the softened butter, brown sugar and vanilla-flavoured syrup with electric beaters, until light and fluffy, 2-3 minutes.
- Add the egg and beat until well combined, 1 minute.

Make the dough

- To the bowl, add the measured cocoa powder and basic sponge mix. On low speed, beat until dough comes together, 1-2 minutes.
- Stir in slivered almonds until just combined

TIP: Beat until the dough just comes together, overbeating can cause the cookies to become tough.

Bake the cookies

- Roll tablespoonfuls of cookie dough into balls. You should get 15-20 cookies. Place dough balls on two lined oven trays, allowing room for spreading.
- Bake for 14-16 minutes or until just firm to touch. Transfer to a wire rack to cool completely.

Prepare the toppings

- When the cookies have cooled, heat a medium frying pan over medium-high heat. Toast shredded coconut, tossing, until golden, 2-3 minutes. Set aside.
- Place white chocolate chips and the vegetable oil in a medium heatproof bowl. Microwave in 20 second bursts, stirring each time, until melted and smooth.

Serve up

- Transfer cookies to a serving plate or board.
- Drizzle with white chocolate, then sprinkle with toasted coconut to serve. Enjoy!
