You will need: chef's knife, chopping board, garlic crusher, sieve, oven tray lined with baking paper, small bowl, medium ovenproof frying pan, medium frying pan, and a potato masher or fork.

1 Preheat the oven to 200°C/180°C fan-forced.

2 Toss the pumpkin in half of the olive oil and season with salt and pepper. Spread out on a lined oven tray. Cook in the oven for 30 minutes or until tender, turning halfway through.

3 Meanwhile, combine the harissa paste and a dash of olive oil in a small bowl and season with salt. Rub the harissa mixture all over the chicken breast.

4 Heat a dash of olive oil in a medium ovenproof frying pan. Cook the chicken for 2 minutes on each side and then transfer to the oven to cook for the last 10 minutes of the pumpkin's cooking time.

5 While the chicken is in the oven, heat the remaining olive oil in a medium frying pan. Add the red onion and cook for 3 minutes or until soft. Add the garlic and cumin and cook until fragrant. Add the chickpeas and cook for 3-4 minutes or until they start to brown a little. Add the lemon juice and parsley and then remove from the heat. Add the roast pumpkin to the pan and, using a fork or potato masher, roughly smash the pumpkin and chickpeas. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

6 To serve, divide the harissa chicken and chickpea smash between plates. Dollop with the Greek yoghurt.

Did you know? Harissa paste is a Tunisian spice paste made from a blend of hot chillies, spices, herbs, garlic and olive oil.
